

U. S. SENATE GOES ON STRIKE! BUT IT'S ALL IN MOVIE LAND

"Legislators" Demand Increase In Pay to $4 Day and Film Is Held Up.

"EXTRAS" IN HOT FIGHT.

Cotton Whiskers and Wigs Fly During Battle in Paramount's Fort Lee Studio.

Residents of Fort Lee awaited today with eagerness developments in the strike of the "extra people" of the Paramount Film Company, which yesterday furnished them with comedy entertainment not in any scenario.

The management has a play under way which calls for a picture of the United States Senate in session. Forty extra men were called to appear in what is usually accepted as Senatorial dress, most of them wearing silk hats and carrying gold-headed canes, with a few clad in the habiliments of the stage Southern statesman—a broad-brimmed sombrero, narrow-waisted "Prince Alberts" and black string ties. At the door of the impromptu Senate chamber the group halted.

"We won't work for $3," announced the leaders. "We must have $4 or we will not go on."

Immediately a division arose among the film statesmen. There were not a few among them who had come over perfectly satisfied in the expectation of taking $3 home for the evening's sustenance and diversion. "Senatorial courtesy" was not. White cotton whiskers wagged and unparliamentary language flowed.

The $4-or-no-film men fell back, gathered stones and tomato cans and let fly at their more complacent colleagues. A delegation of the work-at-any-price wing charged with uplifted canes for the entrance, but were cut off by a curtain fire of missiles.

The tumult and confusion were entirely beyond the control of the force of sergeants-at-arms hurriedly mustered by the management. The debate lasted until the picture was declared off for the day, and the opposing groups of Senators marched down the hill to the ferry separately and held caucuses on opposite sides of the ferryboat all the way to Manhattan.

CHAUFFEUR IS ATTACKED.

Tells Police Man and Woman Lured Him Into Trap.

Stephen Shan Messian, a chauffeur, of No. 385 First Avenue, Long Island City, bumped up to two policemen in the Long Island City Plaza early today and asked for help. He said his taxicab had been engaged at Broadway and Forty-fourth Street by a man and a woman, who said they wished to go to Hillside Avenue, beyond Richmond Hill. Crossing the Queensboro Bridge he noticed he was followed by a second cab. At the direction of his fares Messian turned from the Queens Boulevard into Hill Street and then to Degraw Street. In a lonely stretch they signalled him to stop.

Immediately three men leaped from the second cab, which was close behind, dragged Messian from his seat, beat him, disabled his car, helped the man and woman into the second car and made off.

Messian was sent to St. John's Hospital. The police believe the attack on him was due to a factional quarrel between independent taxicab drivers in the Times Square district.

INCOME TAX FRAUD OF $320,000,000 HINTED IN BILL

Congress Measure Calls on McAdoo to Tell If Government Loses That Sum Yearly.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is directed to furnish Congress with a statement showing "whether or not $320,000,000 is being annually withheld from the treasury by income tax frauds and evasions," in a resolution offered in the House today by Representative Edward Keating of Colorado.

McAdoo, by the same resolution, is asked why he has not recommended to the President that all income tax returns be made public, in order that any fraud may be checked.

Keating says he based his resolution on charges by David M. Manly, who was chief investigator for the Industrial Relations Commission. Manly, in published statements in papers throughout the country, has denounced $40,250,000 should be received annually from the income tax, instead of the $30,130,000 actually collected.

If the resolution McAdoo is directed to declare whether or not the following findings of Manly are true: That of $15,000,000 paid in wages and salaries in 1914, $500,000,000 was paid to men receiving salaries larger than $3,000.

That more than $300,000,000 a year, above the $3,000 exemption, is received as income in the form of fees.

That $20,000,000,000 is received as income from ownership of property and conduct of business above the $3,000 exemption.

That incomes received by persons subject to the income tax total $20,865,000,000, and that the deductions made the figure should be $14,525,000,000.

That, based on this total, with the super-tax enforced on the top 1 per cent, the total taxes to be collected would be $381,250,000.

SILVER STILL GOES UP; HIGHEST SINCE 1893

Price Jumps Two More Points—Nearly Doubled Since War in Europe Began.

Silver continued its remarkable increase in price in markets of the world today, jumping more than 2 cents an ounce. This metal was quoted in New York at 77.14 cents per ounce, which is the highest price attained since 1893, when a check was put on free coinage of silver. At present prices the ratio between gold and silver is about 25 to 1, whereas two years ago it was 37 to 1.

Soon after the European war began silver metal fell to its lowest price of about 45 cents per ounce. But the same war in proving a benefit to silver and has nearly doubled its value within a year and a half. The hoarding of gold in Europe is bringing silver to the front again for coinage purposes to take the place of the yellow metal that disappeared.

The tables are turning and the troubles over currency and coinage which the United States passed through after its Civil War are now confronting European nations due to the world's supply of gold is gravitating toward this country and there are indications that Europe will have to turn toward a silver basis.

FATHER FARRELL TELLS HOW MAYOR ALLOWED POLICE TO TAP WIRE

Priest Declares There is a Conspiracy at Work for Political Purposes.

The Kings County Grand Jury today began an investigation of the charge of the Rev. William B. Farrell, pastor of the Church of St. Peter and Paul, Brooklyn, that his telephone wire had been tapped. The investigation will also embrace the tapping of the wires of the Rev. Daniel C. Potter and his son, Dean Potter, a lawyer.

"Mayor Mitchell and Police Commissioner Woods are responsible for this wire tapping," Father Farrell stated while waiting to be called before the Grand Jury. "The scheme of wire tapping has been nicely and simply worked for political purposes. This is a plain case of conspiracy, and this wire tapping is an invasion of the rights of citizens. Every man prominent in public life in recent years has been victimized. I know of no case in which the wire tapping was for blackmail, but it was used for political purposes."

"They say it was to discover evidence of a crime, but take the case of Seymour & Seymour, the lawyers. Burns was employed by the German Government to tap that wire. 'Gen. Du Pont's lawyers, Seymour & Seymour, learned of what was going on and they hired Val O'Farrell, who discovered the conspiracy.' Dr. Farrell and his son and Father Farrell were the only witnesses subpoenaed today. District Attorney Harry E. Lewis said that no one subject to indictment would be subpoenaed, but that if any of them wanted to volunteer their testimony they could do so by signing a waiver of immunity."

After Father Farrell had testified he said that he had positive evidence that Cardinal Farley's wire had been tapped as had been the telephone wire of Bishop Hayes.

HURLS DYNAMITE AT POLICE.

Demented Jersey City Man Causes Explosion But Misses Mark.

Kurt Feller, a saloon porter, apparently unbalanced by brooding over the war, hurled a parcel containing ten lighted caps, each holding twenty grains of dynamite, at a police patrol wagon at Palisade Avenue and Franklin Street, Jersey City, today. The caps exploded, but Feller's aim was bad and he missed the wagon by sixty feet.

The explosion was heard for blocks. Patrolman Joseph Weil, who was riding in the wagon with James Horne, the driver, saw Feller throw the parcel and leaped out and arrested him. Feller talked as if demented. He admitted throwing the improvised bomb but declared he didn't mean to hurt anyone. He refused to say where he got the caps.
